Scholarship For Nigerian Youth Is Aim

Through the hard-working efforts of a number of New-ton South High School students, a deserving youth in Nigeria will be able to obtain a high school education.

The International Rela-tions Club of the local high school is launching its "Nigerian Honor Roll" scholarship campaign. It will pro-vide a high school education at the Comprehensive High School in Aiyetoro, Nigeria.

The African school has been established with the aid of Harvard and Newton educators, including Dr. Donald K. Davidson, South High School principal, who is currently visiting the Nigerian school. Mr. Van Seasholes, a South High School history teacher, who is spending the year at Aiyetoro, suggested the schol-arship fund in a recent letter.

"I hope that we can investigate various ways to develop a relationship be-tween South High School and our school here, and run a scholarship program for a worthy student. It costs a boarding student $168.00 a year to go to our school. This is an impossible burden on poor students, so say kind of scholarship help is needed," wrote Mr. Van

Negro A Hitchhiker On American Vehicle, Civil Rights Speaker Says

Dr. Howard Zinn, featured speaker at the recent open meeting on civil rights held by the Newton League of Women Voters, likened the Negro to "a hitch hiker on the American vehicle."

"If the vehicle is going in the right direction," It said, "he can jump on, even though he must climb the back seat."

Speaking on "The Federal "The problem is to get the Government and Protection of the Constitutional Rights of the law." Minorities," Dr. Zinn, head of the history department at Spelman College in Atlanta, Ga., and advisor to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, further stated that the Negro never has been the number one concern in any administration.

He paralleled the political oncern of the government to he sun and its moral concern to the moon and then exclaim to the moon and then exclaimed, "But we can't wait for the cclipse. Great excitement must be created to get the federal government to act."

Author of two books and writer of several articles which have appeared in the Nation and other publications, Dr. Zinn stressed the fact that the executive branch of the Attorney General, Department of Justice, and the F.B.I.—is not enforcing the Constitution in the deep South. "The trouble is not with the limit of the Mewton to the Mewton in the deep South." The trouble is not with the limit of the Mewton to the Mewton the West Invited enforcement of it." he said, program chairman.

A 30-minute documentar film entitled, "We'll Neve. Turn Back," was also shown. The film was produced by Snick, an organiz-ation made up mainly of young southern students who have given up a year or more of their studies to act as field workers whose main purpose is to win for Negro Americans in the Rural Black Belt South their basic constitutional rights to register and vote.

In it, the audience heard actual testimony from negroes relating the experiences they encountered when attempting to register. These took the forms of beating, loss of jobs and orders to leave the area in which they were living.

A Symbol of Hospitality

"The Hospitable reception of guests procures wealth, fame, long life and heavenly bliss," says an old proverb. Wherever history traces the story of hospitality, it traces the history of man's greatest development. Hospitality is a cornerstone upon which civilization has been built.

In the rush of the modern business day, little courtesies are often forgotten. Here at Garden City, we consider these little things extremely important, and we try not to forget them. That's why our customers all say that they like to come into our homelike banking rooms. Why not come in today and see for yourself, We believe you'll enjoy doing business with us.

Salute To Girl Scouts

Our local Girl Scouts will join with their sister Scouts and adult leaders throughout the nation, more than three million strong, to observe the 52nd anniversary of the founding of the organization, during Girl Scout Week, March 8 to 14.

During this anniversary a special emphasis is placed upon a message presented to Girl Scouts at the 1962 Roundup by the late President John F. Kennedy, and a promise made by them to him.

"I ask you to pause and consider how you individuals can prepare yourselves for service to your country and to mankind."

This was the challenge the late President Kennedy issued to the 8500 Girl Scouts who attended the Senior Roundup at Button Bay, Vermont, in the summer of 1962.

The commitment delivered to President Kennedy by the girl campers at the close of the encampment eloquently embodied the ideals of Girl It is the theme again of Girl Scout Week, and stresses the traditional promises and outlooks of the organization, as follows:

"We will re-examine the Girl Scout Promise and Laws and work harder to use them as principles to live by.

"We will keep an open mind in order to learn from our experience, from situations, and from other people.

"We will develop in ourselves a craving for knowledge.

"We will try to find our prej_dices and erase them.

"We will respect freedom as the right to every individual.

"We will try to leave a small part of ourselves in everything we do. "We will promote peace in our world by first finding peace in ourselves.'

This statement was written by teenage girls as their promise to a President of the United States.

The theme for Girl Scout Week this year is "Girl Scouting-A Promise In Action." It refers to the tivitional Girl Scout Promise. But the 8500 girls who were Roundup campers in 1962 will remember also the promise made to the late President. Both promises are pertinent in today's tense and confused world.

The observance of Girl Scout Week reminds each of us that this is a time to re-examine our own values-and the values we are passing on to beliefs in "God and country," and to support organizations like the Girl Scouts.

Advertise By Automobile

Local motorists, as well as those from our sister New England States, may become involuntary harbingers of the area wherever they travel, according to a plan now underway.

All automobile number plates in all New England States will carry the legend, "Visit New England" if legislation, as proposed by vacation experts at the Automobile Legal Association, is passed by each state legislature. New York State plates advertise the World's Fair this year.

It is predicted that our New England States will need every bit of advertising they can get in the coming few years and this advertising will not only cost nothing but will be seen on almost four million cars everywhere they go, the proponents

Let us offer a silent prayer that the affixation of the legend to our Bay State plates, when and if it happens, will also produce a more modern design for the plate, a move long overdue in Many Massachusetts motorists have long felt that our Commonwealth could have proclaimed some promotional message on our auto plates over the years, and to good advantage.

The recent rusty edition of Bay State registration plates did very little for the image of the state. Bay State motorists travelling beyond the confines of the state met many caustic references to the horrible looking, rusted and illegible appendages.

A modern plate in design and color is a luxury that Bay State motorists have long deserved. Maybe that day is near at hand. Let us drive forth and proudly proclaim our New England area.

Style Corner

Thursday night has turned out to be the loneliest night the week. Things have been so quiet on Thursday nights at ecques' men's wear store that it's positively eerie, dearie. Imagine grown men sitting around and holding hands ... secure they were afraid of the dark. Stan Marquedaunt and staff felt friendless and unwanted ... and truth to tell, the his staff felt friendless and unwanted — and truth to tell, the local Welcome Wagon never did pay Jacques a friendly visit. So, after seven months of being open on Thursday and Friday evenings til 9 o'clock, Jacques is initiating a shift Beginning next week, the store will be open on WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY EVENINGS til 9, with regular store hours of 9 to 6 observed on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Something going on inside every day except Sunday, Folks! The lack of traffic and human countenances abroad on the retail rialto of Newton Corner on a Thursday was almost more retail ratio or Newton Corner on a musuay and amough to make a grown man cry.

And, if you would not want to bring unhappiness to the people at Jacques, perhaps you should drop around next Nednesday (or Friday) in the evening. That's when you can hop leisurely in comfortable surroundings and take part in acques of Newton Corner.

School Board Stands By Vote On Stearns Safety

A delegation of Horace Mann PTA Building Com-mittee members filled virmittee members filled virtually all available space for visitors at Monday night's meeting of the School Committee. Despite a presentation that drew high praise from Committee members, they failed in their effort to change the stand taken last December by the Committee relative to use of the third floor of the Stearns School by for-mer pupils of the burned-out Horace Mann School.

After qualified experts on safety, fire prevention and building codes had pictured the Stearns School, particularly its third floor with its auditorium, as a structure which constitutes a fire trap and one in which a long list of state, federal and local safety laws are violated, the School Committee voted unanimously to ratify and re-affirm its vote of last De-cember, at which time the Committee decided that the

The qualified experts and others representing the PTA having had their say, Chair-man Haskell C. Freedman gave the visitors an explanation of the situation at the Stearns School as it was viewed by his committee.

Referring to the charges that codes are being violated there, he pointed out that the committee had no power to act on the allegations made by the PTA's experts and that violations did not exist until and unless a court of law found them to be in effect.

Two complaints filed against Threadgold by an attorney for Herbert L. Connolly, also a Senate candidate, were dismissed by the State Ballot Law Commission.

One complaint was based on the fact that Threadgold does not live in the senatorial district in which he is seeking reelection. He presently re-sides in Ward 2. The senatorial district includes Wards 1. 6 and 7 of Newton but not Ward 2.

A second complaint alleged that Threadgold's nomination papers do not contain suffi-cient valid signatures.

On the first count the Ballot Law Commission pointout that the law provides that a candidate for the Senate must reside in the senatorial district on election day.

Thus, Threadgold could not be elected if he did not live MOVT - (See Page 5)

BERYL W. COHEN Rep. Cohen Is Continuing His Senate Campaign

Democratic Representative Beryl W. Cohen of Brookline is continuing his bid for elec-tion to the State Senate seat vacated by the death of Michael J. Galvin.

He is campaigning for the Democratic nomination in the primary to be held a week from next Tuesday (March from next Tuesday (March 24). The district in which he is running includes Wards 1, 6 and 7 of Newton along with the town of Brookline and Ward 22, Brighton.

Cohen's campaign is taking him directly to the voters.

His guests at a fund-raising breakfast held last Sunday in-cluded Thomas Noonan, New England Small Business Ad-ministrator; Senate President John E. Powers, Registrar of Motor Vehicles James R. Lawton, Representative Michael Dukakis, Representative

ael Dukakis, Representative Irving Fishman, Herbert Regal and others.
On last Sunday afternoon Representative, Irving Fishman held a reception for Cohen at Fishman's Newton home. It was attended by about 100 of Fishman's friends. Cohen stated that he is running on his "proven record" and "on the many issues pertipent to the Norfolksues pertinent to the Norfolk-Suffolk senatorial district."

Cohen reported that his candidacy has been enthusiasti-cally received in the district. He expressed the conviction that he has demonstrated that he has the ability, integrity, and experience necessary to represent the senatorial dis-

The Red Cross Takes A Bow

The Newton Red Cross chapter, in company with other busy chapters across the nation, takes a bow this month of March and with excusable pride points to a brilliant and dedicated record of achievement on all levels, community, state and national.

Elsewhere in The Graphic today a comprehensive picture is painted of the variety of services dispensed by the Red Cross. Many citizens already have been served by the Red Cross in one form or another. They are prompt and loyal supporters of the

In local trouble and national emergency, the Red Cross is quick to respond and comes equipped with every needed agency and a corps of dedicated volunteers to lend a helping hand.

The Red Cross is an old hand at handling the situation in times of distress. The familiar symbol recognized around the world as the beacon of com-

Newton is privileged to have a particularly well organized chapter with selfless citizens handling the reins in all aspects of its everready stewardship. It is a pleasure and a duty indeed to salute our Newton Red Cross Chapter and in so doing recognize the great good work of the organization around the globe.

A Preview Of Days To Come

The annual, colorful and fragrant unveiling of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society's Spring Flower Show usually comes at a time when most of us have had our fill of winter's cold, misery, snow and ice. This goes double this year.

We have suffered through more than our usual helping of the "beautiful snow" this winter and the glory of spring, as exemplified at the Flower Show, cannot come too soon.

For those among us who can't hie themselves away to Florida's happy temparatures and sunny clime, a saunter through the masses of flowers and greenery at the show is tonic indeed to winter-weary

The preview of happy, and warmer days ahead; will be available starting Saturday for nine days. Take plenty of time to browse among the blooms; give the eyes and nose-in fact, the whole carcass,

What is so rare as a day in March when we can step out of miserable winter into gay, delightful and flowering spring,, merely by stepping over the threshold at Wonderland Park.

Meeting Of PTA Stresses School Needs

The Carr School PTA executive committee met on March 3 at the Carr School. The meeting was called to order by Nomi Henes, president, and brief committee reports were given. Mrs. Norma Mintz and Mrs. Grace Whitmore, school committee members from the Carr School area, were present at the invitation of the Carr PTA executive committee. The discussion with Mrs. Mintz and Mrs. Whitmore cen-tered on the need for additional classroom space at the Carr Schoo, Both the PTA execu tive members, and the school committee members provided unknown information to each other. The power of the school committee as such was defined and the acute need of the Carr School for space was emphasized.

At the close of the meeting committee was formed to Violinist To contact the mayor, the aldermen and the school committee.
The volunteer members are Mrs. Ruth Baer, teacher representative, Nomi Henes, resentative, Nomi Henes, Mrs. Thalia Kitrilakis, Mrs. June Mendelsohn, Harold Parritz, and Mrs. Gershon Rosen-Boston Symphony Hall with the

Political Highlights

Indeed, Powers himself, with the passing of time and the changing of conditions, has shifted his own position on some matters. But Powers also has been the master politician of his time on Beacon Hill.

With his strong personality, his natural abilities, his flair for leadership, his dogged determination, his willingness to work harder than anyone else, Powers became the most influential legislator in the modern history of Massachusetts.

When Powers and Senator Maurice A. Donahue executed a neat political coup which saw Donahue sew up the necessary votes to succeed Powers as Senate president before most observers realized what was happening, it wasn't the first time Powers maneuvered the election of the Senate's presiding officer.

The last time Powers did it he shattered the Republican grip on the Senate, and the GOP never has recovered from the blow he administered to it.

It was early January in 1957. Senate 21 to 19. Senator Philip A. Graham of Hamilton, now Senators.

Plan Big Tribute For Mrs. Heckler

One of the troubles with the Republican party in Massa-chusetts is that it doesn't have enough Margaret Hecklers.

That is the feeling of many of the persons who are assist-ing with plans for a big tribute to Governor's Councillor Heckler on the night of May 1.

It will take the form of a theatre party at a performance of the new Carol Burnett musi-cal comedy at the Colonial Theatre. The entire theatre has been taken over for the event which will be followed by a champagne party at the Wom-an's City Club.

Persons from all sections of Councillor Heckler's district are working on the arrange-ments for the party in her honor. Ticket reservations may be made with Mrs. Harper B. Clifford of Wellesley Hills.

Popularity Poll Test Of Patronage Power

If patronage can be trans-lated into votes in the ballot boxes, Governor Peabody should have no problem whatever romping in first in the Democratic delegate-at-large popularity contest which will be one of the highlights of the April 23 Presidential Primary in Massachusetts.

Peabody's "patronage - hapaides have been handing out jobs as political rewards in so wholesale a manner that they should experience no they should experience no trouble in mobilizing an army of willing and eager workers who will troop out and get enough votes for the Governor to make him look good.

The fact that Peabody will be the 44th in the list of Democratic delegates-at-large candidates should not create any overpowering dilemma for the Governor's loyal and devoted followers.

If they can't count up to 44, some of them should be thrown out of the jobs in which they have been placed during Peabody's gubernatorial reign.

Actually, the April 28 popularity poll should provide a pretty good test of whether an abundance of patronage is the tremendous political asset Peabody and his advisers apparently believe it to be.

Breaking tradition, this year's show will not be held jointly with Newton High School. Thus a larger number of South High School students will be able to display projects and perform demonstrations.

Students entering original projects will be eligible to compete in the regional and state science fairs.

Among the projects and demonstrations planned are the following: Preparation of tri-phenyl carbinol, Faraday's laws of electrolysis, melting point of mixtures, analysis by spectroscopy, urinalysis, pre-paration and properties of hydrogen, muscle fatigue, car-bon 14 uptake in plants, Michelson's interferometer. and ripple tanks for finding wave properties.

After a preliminary display of the projects during the aft-ernoon, the three best original projects will be moved to the lecture hall of the library building, where they will be seen by visitors during the evening of March 18.

Violence In Our Time

Violence in this age of over-kill is a luxury we can no longer afford, a Boston University eductional philosopher, and a Newton resident, said in a recent

Dr. Paul Nash warned that "violence feeds on violence. It is impossible to isolate it once we embark upon it, and we are now aware of the ultimate consequence of violent behavior in our power to destroy completely the species of man.'

Commenting upon its prevalence in our society, Dr. Nash said, "Crime among adults and juveniles is marked by a steady increase in the degree of physical violence employed."

The Newton associate professor of history and philosophy also commented upon the manufacturers of children's toys. He pointed out their increasing ingenuity in providing ways in which kiddies can shoot, bomb, or otherwise destroy imaginary enemies. "Who can doubt that violence is the cancer of our age?" he queried.

He brought out the fact that physical violence springs from weakness and not from strength.

This premise is strongly supported in the news stories of violent deeds inflicted upon hapless victims of all ages in our society.

Picture the gang of three or more young toughs beating up an elderly holdup victim, fatally shooting another, mauling women and other vicious antics. These burly-boys never work alone. As Professor Nash sees it, they require the courage of numbers, usually outnumbering their prey four or five to one, plus the added advantage of weapons.

A complete lack of respect for any authority is exemplified by the adolescent delinquents and roisterers. Assaults on teachers in the public schools have now been added to the expanding list of youthful crimes of violence. Legally established authority is flouted everywhere.

Brutality is seen almost constantly on the movie screens, theatre stages and television tubes. The character who settles all problems with his fists, knees and boots is the hero of the day and the idol

Even the apparently innocent children's animated cartoons on television are saturated with the "Pows" "Bangs," "Zowies," and "Pops" of the cute little figures as they assault and annihilate one another.

The lives of gangsters and hoods are portrayed as "daring and exciting" and their exploits glamorized out of all proportion to actual fact.

This glitter dust is thrown into the eyes of the young by adults who spread the propaganda for gain. The awesome results of this mental fare are in evidence everyday. Indeed, as Newton's Dr. Nash has warned, "Violence is the cancer of our age."

If violence feeds upon violence, there can be no discernible improvement in this menace of contemporary life until a drastic change is made in our out-look on modern living. The change cannot come too soon. The remedy is long overdue.

A New Kind Of Sunshine

We have been acutely aware that our New England weather caprices test the talents of the most skilled of meteorologists, and we have been longsuffering and most tolerant of the boo-boos regularly chalked up by the forecasting gentry.

But, St. Patrick's Day was the clincher and the straw that broke the leprechaun's back. Sunny and warmer, indeed. And, it was all predicted with such smiles and blarney on the part of the seers.

Now, the weather lads who daily entertain us on television, and radio, too, are a fine lot and apparently make an earnest effort to be right occasionally.

They beguile us with all sorts of gimmicks, flashing symbols on animated maps, pretty girls writing backwards and upside down, and a variety of chalked hieroglyphics. All to the accompaniment of toothy smiles and unctuous voices.

How can you foster a grudge against such exhibitions? But, after all, we would like to know what kind of weather we're going to have. We don't want

We once knew an old codger who was phenomenally accurate in weather forecasting. He had no satellites or modern equipment, but based his predictions on a pair of corns and a bunion. He was rarely wrong

Yes, the St. Patrick's Day fizzle-forecast was the clincher. The most valiant sons of the ould sod, trying with might and main, couldn't make the sun shine, or so we are told.

Heart Fund

Editor of The Graphic:

On behalf of the many people who worked for the cress of the 1964 Heart Fund Campaign, please accept my sincere thanks for aiding the effort through the pages of the NEWTON GRAPHIC.

Your frequent use of Heart Fund stories and photographs during the recent campaign proved an invaluable aid to our over-all efforts in reaching the people in your ity. It is only through publicity that we can munity. such gain public understanding of the vast problem of heart disease and thereby garner support in combating it.

We are also pleased to have the opportunity to feature many of the local Heart Fund volunteers in your area in the NEWTON GRAPHIC. The devoted work of these people is the backbone of the annual campaign effort.

Taking an active part in taking an active part in the hearing with Mr. Shat-tuck were Charles Eliot, Mrs. Joseph Fyffe, Joseph Hudak, and Rep. William Homans, Jr., of Cambridge, who filed House Bill 1355.

The speakers expressed the oncern of many local citizens for the Norumbega area and all sections of the Charles River as it flows past Newton

Newton citizens and government agencies must become Paul J. Burke, William Caraware of the need for comen, William M. Glovsky,

Rep. Homans said he filed H. 1355 because he feels it would have a salutary effect in seeing that the river is not treated in haphazard fashion. "It is true that this is planning for only one area of the metropolitan district, but it is an important area," said Homans.

Passage of 1355 would au-horize and direct the MDC to prepare a general plan for the preservation and develop-ment of the scenic and recreational potentialities of the dering the metropolitan park district

The Commission would be further authorized to employ the consulting services of qualified landscape architects and planners and to expend a certain sum for the plan's preparation.

H. 1355 was favorably reported out of the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs and is on Metropolitan Affairs and is now in the Ways and Means Committee because of the need for an appropriation which Mr. Homans hopes will be approved. Mayor Donald L. Gibbs, Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner, Newton's repre-sentative on the Metropolitan sentative on the Metropolitan Area Planning Council, and Rep Lorenz F. PRING will be springing out from behind a snowbank on Friday at exactly 9:10 a.m. That's when the vernal equinox occurs, whatever that is, and it signals the robins to go forth to warble their morning lays.

We can think of no better way of marking spring's arrival than by dropping in at Jacques where the spring semester is just about to start. The sight of springtime fashions at Jacques is better than taking an old-fashioned spring tonic . . . they'll pep you up in no time!

Better still, climb into a few of the new suits and coats at Jacques. One that has a lot of worldly appeal as the around-the-world-without-a-wrinkle suit is the Viracle suit of Hart, Schaffner & Marx.

Here's a suit that sneers at wrinkles. It's the Dacron content of the fabric that helps the suit bounce back to its original best look even on the muggiest days.

If you were to pay for this great spring suit on the basis of the care-taking stitches put into it, and the underbursting molding of the garment — you'd be paying hundreds of dollars. That's why the Viracle suit price of only $89.50 comes as a fresh breath of spring to anyone who knows the art of fine tailoring.

It's spring, and romance is in the air at Jacques. Put on a Viracle suit and be listed along those falling victim to a long love affair in men's cothing . . . before spring fever sets in! A-kerchoo!

She asserted that she is the only candidate with ntal experience at governmental experience at the local, state and international levels.

As an attorney at the Nurn-berg trials, she said, it was responsibility to analyze all of the interrogations the statements of Goering, Keitel, Jodel and others. She analyzed Goering as amoral and Streicher as bestial.

She was chosen for that assignment by the Secretary of State because of her experi-ence on the staff of the In-spector General of the Army. Her national experience, sh sserted, dealt not only with being a field representative of the Democratic national committee from 1946 through 1948 but also consisted of be 1948 but also consisted of being on President Truman's staff as associate general counsel for the period of the mobilization for Korea in 1951. Ahearn Cites | Free Library Fitness For Senate Post

Francis X. Ahearn Brighton, who is campaign-ing for the Democratic nomination for the State Senate seat left vacant by the death of the late Senator Michael J. Galvin, today listed his qualification for service in the Senate.

"My years of practical ex-perience in high public office, my years of training in re-search in law and govern-ment devoted to drafting and proposing laws for the Leg-islature quality us to conislature qualify me to serve as your Senator in a manner no other candidate can claim," declared Ahearn.

Ahearn served six years in the Boston City Council, was president of the Council and in that capacity served for periods as Acting Mayor of Boston. On the State level he was First Deputy and Acting Secretary of State.

He spent many years in research as attorney for the search as attorney for the Commission on the Commer-cial Code. He drafted the "home rule law" for Boston and the three new city charters available to Boston.

An honor graduate of Bos-ton College and Boston Col-lege Law School, where he graduated first in his class, he served on the faculty of the B.C. Law School.

"The big issue, the most important issue, in this brief campaign is who is the best qualified candidate to fill the vacancy left by the untimely leath of General Galvin," Ahearn asserted.
"With between 3000 and 4000 bills before the Legislature, who is best qualified by virtue of training and experience to analyze these bills and make a determination as to merit, soundness, proper form and meaning?" Ahearn asked.

"Laws passed by the Legislature affect almost every activity of our citizens and every facet of their lives,"

Ahearn stated.

"Matters of this kind are highly technical and compli-cated and involve many millions of the taxpayers' money. should Such matters passed on by mature, experienced experts in law and gov-ernment," Ahearn declared.

Political Highlights

Those are brave, strong words, and that probably is an over-optimistic forecast by Mr. Waring since it is highly unlikely that Lodge will suffer any humiliating defeat in his own State.

However, Waring, who is the Republican party's top fund-raiser in Massachusetts, was just getting rmed up on the subject of Lodge

He said that Lodge was no ball of fire as Ambassador to the United Nations, that all he did was get up and shout and play to the crowds and that the Communists made more gains in the UN during the eight years Lodge was there than in any other period. Waring had a lot more to say about Lodge, none of it of a complimentary nature.

Waring declared that Lodge will be the one embarrassed in the Massachusetts Primary because he has no business being in it and hasn't sense enough to get out of it. He predicted that Lodge will "fall flat on his face" in his home State, adding that he would be very happy to help dump Lodge into that position.

resenting the burnt offering presented each day of the festival during the existence of the Temple in Jerusalem.

During the Seder, the participants drink four cups of wine. This is a reminder that Moses, the central figure in the Exodus story, was sent by God to deliver the Israelites from Egypt. The Lord promised the Hebrews four different types of redemption: release from bondage, deliverance from servitude, redemption from all dependence in Egypt, and selection as "the people of the Lord." Therefore, four cups of wine are consumed.

Children play an important opport during the Seder. The youngest member of the family poses four questions at the start of the ceremony, noting the difference between the Passover meal and regular, every-day meals. This sets the stage for the telling of the Exodus story.

In addition, to keep the attention of the youngsters, the Seder service contains songs and riddles plus a game called "finding the aphikomor" and Greek word meaning "after the meal." In ancient days it was customary to eat the Passoval lamb at the close

Let Us Revive Kinship

A portion of meaty food for thought was delivered by the guest speaker at the recent 15th annual Lenten Luncheon held at the Newton YMCA. It is most appropriate fare at this Eastertime.

Dr. Forest L. Knapp, general secretary of the Massachusetts Council of Churches, told his audience that many Americans are now isolating themselves from their community, friends, churches and God.

The speaker warned all of us that we are developing a skill for hearing only what we want to hear, and that while we may listen, we do not always hear the message of God.

It was a timely warning and one that far too many of us should take to heart.

Dr. Knapp's voice is one of many these days crying in the wilderness of our contemporary prosperity, smugness, self-satisfaction and conformity.

Clergymen of all denominations warn us that while the message of God is delivered eloquently every week from the nation's pulpits, its impact and meaning flows unheeded and unstudied past many blithely unconcerned listeners.

We have been blessed abundantly in this nation of ours. The majority of us have enjoyed a prosperity unknown to most of the earth's peoples. The tragic days of national depression and world wars, their accompanying hardships and sorrows, are a dim and distant nightmare to those who suffered through them. It is merely a phase of ancient history to our younger generations, something which the elders experienced but which even they vaguely

We are all fat cats now, plump and purring and isolated even from the memory of past unpleasant-

This is an excusable human trait; when pain ceases it leaves no memory.

However, we might occasionally offer a prayer of thanksgiving for our improved circumstances, for the peace which blesses our land at this Eastertime, and for our personal well being. Many of the things we take for granted are still denied other peoples

Let us be aware of their problems and of the difficulties still confronting some of our fellow Americans in this land still not blessed with freedom for them.

As Dr. Knapp warned in this city, Americans cannot isolate themselves from the critical situations confronting mankind either at home or abroad. We are contemporary with them and are a part of every struggle whatever its locale.

The events of Holy Week and the glorious crescendo of joy and happiness awaiting the Easter Resurrection must remind us definitely that we are our brother's keeper. Let us revive our kinship with nation, community, friends, fellowmen everywhereand God.

A Step Towards Safety

If for no other reason than their own safety, our Bay State motorist must have experienced a certain satisfaction with the recently announced extended schedule of automobile inspection due for this Commonwealth come the fall.

Included in the more comprehensive scrutiny set up for Massachusetts vehicles will be a rigid examination of the tires upon which the cars are rolling.

This area is long overdue for a critical survey. Worn tires and those suffering defects are a menace to anyone riding the highways in their vicinity. Not only the driver of a car bearing these tires but any motorist in the immediate area could be the victims of a blow-out erupting from poor tire conditions.

The increasing number of vehicles, the highspeed highways and turnpikes being constructed to accommodate the mass of mechanized juggernauts, all add up to tighter and expanded examinations for the cars on the roads.

Some future day we may even go so far towards highway safety as to cut-down on the power of the cars at the production line. A few less horses under the hood would never be missed.

Political Highlights

What this points up is the political stature, prestige and popularity Senator Kennedy has achieved in a span of less than 24 months.

Just two years ago, Ted Kennedy, known principally as the youngest brother of the President of the United States, was jousting with former Attorney General Edward J. McCormack, Jr., for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. Senate.

Since then he has emerged as an extremely popular and accomplished politician who is sought after as a speaker not only in Massachusetts but in States stretching from New York to Colorado, Wyoming, Cali-

When seasoned political observers discuss the possibility of another Kennedy being elected President, the name they mention is that of Ted Kennedy, not Bobby Kennedy.

on the campaign trails.

You certainly would have to rate him ahead of Senator Mike Mansfield, Senator Hubert Humphrey, UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson or the likes of Governor Pat Brown.

That this is true in Ted Kennedy's second year in public office is astonishing and almost unprecedented.

He has the same flair for making friends as his late brother. In fact, it probably is fair to say that Ted Kennedy is a much more skilled politician today than John F. Kennedy was when he had been in

Dr. Knapp cited a number of ways we can be isolated Industries is the largest non-profit, non-sectarian agency of its kind in New England. without being aware of the harm we are doing to our friends, our community, and ourselves.

> He said many Americans today have developed a skill of hearing only what they want to hear, and that we listen but do not always hear the message of God.

Ways in which this isolation can take place depend on geography, physical, language, race, and psychological factors, stated Dr. Knapp.
